An Advertisement.

THE End of this short Explication is to render the Principles of Christian Religion, comprised in the Church Catechism, plain and easie to the meanest Capacities. And the Method thereof is this. 1. The Catechism is printed in a different Letter on the left-hand page, that it may be first learned by it self. 2. The several Questions of the Catechism, are put under a proper Title, containing the Subject of each Question, and the Answers to them are broken to pieces by a few brief and plain Explicatory Questions; so that ignorant Learners may easily understand the full meaning of them. And those who cannot read, or cannot get long Answers by heart (which want Instruction the most) need not be discouraged by this method, because they are not required hereby to answer any more than Yes, or No, which will be no burthen to their Memory, and yet will exercise their Judgment, and as well teach them to understand the sense of their Catechism, as try whether they do so or no. Yet those of better Capacity may exercise their Memory also, and by frequent reading the Explicatory Questions, will be able to repeat them after the Catechist, and turn them into an Affirmative or Negative Position, thus,

Qu. Ought your Name, &c. Ans. Yes, my Name, &c. ought, &c.

Qu. Are not Infants, &c. Ans. Infants are not, &c.

Now this may be of use as well to Parents in private, as to Ministers in publick; who may first ask the Learners so many Questions of the Church-Catechism, as they think fit for one time; and then beginning again, may first tell them the Title or Subject of each Question, and then examine them by the Explicatory Questions belonging thereunto. And if the Minister please to enlarge a little in a plain Discourse upon every Explicatory Question, and also to shew unto what part of the Answer in the Church-Catechism it doth refer, the Learner will better understand it, which will make the necessary Duty of Catechising still more profitable, and will drop Knowledge by degrees into those narrow-mouthed Vessels, for whose sake this Method was contrived. And the Success it hath had, on many very young Children, and very ignorant Country People, hath encouraged the Publication thereof, in hopes it may be very serviceable, not only for private Families, but also for Country Congregations, as well to invite the Learners to come in great Numbers by its easiness, as to instruct them by its plainness. And the whole is no other than the Church-Catechism enjoined by Law, briefly explained, and no more imposed to be gotten by heart, than that which the Church requires, the rest being only contrived to make that understood and try if it be so. It is hoped the Right Reverend Governours of the Church, (to whose Censure the whole is humbly submitted) will not dislike the Publication thereof, in order to the fitting the more ignorant sort, for those great Duties of Confirmation and the Lord's Supper. 'I need not here add any thing concerning the Divine Institution and Antiquity of Catechising; the Excellency of our Church-Catechism, both for its agreeableness to Primitive Forms, and its exact Method; nor shall I now enlarge upon the Necessity and Use of this profitable and pious Duty, having in a peculiar Discourse upon Catechising, treated of these particulars, and exhorted, 1. Ministers to promote not only the learning the Catechism by rote, but understanding thereof. 2. Parents and Masters both to instruct their Children and Servants in private, and to bring them to Church to be publicly Catechised. 3. And excited the Younger and Ignorant People to come willingly. To which Discourse I refer the Reader, Companion to the Altar, Pag. 451, 452, &c.

Short Discourses upon the whole Common-Prayer, designed to inform the Judgment, and Excite the Devotion of such as daily use the same, by Tho. Comber, D.D. Sold by Robert Clavel.

THE I N T R O D U C T I O N.

- § Almighty God having Created our first Parents after his own Image, did condescend to enter into a Covenant with them, wherein he promised Life to them, and their Posterity, upon Condition of perfect and perpetual Obedience, and threatned their Disobedience with Death.
- §. Our first Parents through the Temptation of Satan, wilfully transgressed the Commandment of God in eating the forbidden Fruit, and thereby brought themselves, and all their Posterity, into an Estate of Sin and Misery.
- §. God hath not left Mankind to perish in the Estate of Sin and Misery, into which they fell by the Breach of the first Covenant; But hath been pleased of his meer Love and Mercy to make a second Covenant of Grace, wherein he freely offereth Pardon and Salvation, by Jesus Christ, to all those who shall truly repent, and believe in him.
- §. And seeing this Covenant is solemnly to be entered into, in our Infancy by Baptism, (which is the first Benefit and Favour we are capable of after we are born) it seemed good to the Excellent Compilers of this Catechism, to begin it where we begin our Christianity; and by the mention of our Name received in Baptism, to take occasion to mind us of our Obligations, and Priviledges thereby.

Quest. 1.

What is your Name ?

Answer.

A. *o*z M.

Question 2.

Who gave you that Name ?

Answer.

My Godfathers and Godmothers in my Baptism, wherein I was made a Member of Christ, the Child of God, and an Inheritor of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Question 3.

What did your Godfathers and Godmothers then for you ?

Answer.

They did promise and vow three things in my Name.

First, That I should renounce the Devil and all his works; the Pomps and Vanitie of this wicked World, and all the sinful Lusts of the Flesh.

Secondly, That I should believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith.

And thirdly, That I should keep Gods holy Will and Commandments, and walk in the same all the days of my Life.

THE EXPLANATION Of the CATECHISM.

Qu. 1, 2. Of the Benefits of Baptism.

- §. Ought your Name received in Baptism, to put you in mind of the Duties and Priviledges of the Covenant, into which you did then enter?
- §. Are not Infants by reason of their tender Age incapable of receiving any Benefit by Baptism?
- §. Were you in your Infancy thereby made and solemnly admitted,
1. A Member of Christ, and his Church?
  2. A Child of God by Adoption?
  3. And an Heir of the Kingdom of Heaven?

Yes.

No.

Yes.

Yes.

Yes.

Qu. 3. Of the Vow of Baptism.

- §. Were these great Benefits conferred on you absolutely, without any Conditions to be performed on your part?
- §. Did not your Sureties who presented you to Baptism, then solemnly promise in your Name and Behalf, that you should,
1. Renounce the Temptations of the Devil, and the World; and mortifie the evil Desires of your own corrupt Heart?
  2. Believe the Principles of the Christian Religion, revealed by God in holy Scriptures, and briefly comprised in the Creed?
  3. Sincerely and constantly obey all Gods Commandments?

No.

Yes.

Yes.

Yes.

Question 4.

Dost thou not think that thou art bound to believe, and to do as they have promised for thee?

Answer.

Yes verily; and by Gods help so I will. And I heartily thank our heavenly Father, that he hath called me to this state of Salvation, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. And I pray unto God to give me his Grace, that I may continue in the same unto my lives end.

Question 5.

Rehearse the Articles of thy Belief.

Answer.

- §. Is not the Moral Law ( which is the Rule of our Obedience ) summarily comprehended in the Ten Commandments ?

Yes.

Yes.

Preface. Of the Motives to Obedience.

- §. Should not [ 1. ] God's Sovereignty over us [ 2. ] His Relation to us [ 3. ] and his delivering ( as Israel of old from Egyptian Bondage, so) us from our Spiritual Thralldom engage us to keep all his Commandments?

No.

Explicatory Questions on the several Commandments, See page 16, 17, 18, 19.

I. Thou

- I. Thou shalt have none other Gods but me.
- II. Thou shalt not make to thy self any graven Image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in Heaven above, or in the Earth beneath, or in the water under the Earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them. For I the Lord thy God am a Jealous God, and visit the sins of the Fathers upon the Children, unto the third and fourth Generation of them that hate me, and shew mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my Commandments.
- III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: For the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.
- IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou and thy Son, and thy Daughter, thy Man-servant, and thy Maid-servant, thy Cattel and the Stranger that is within thy Gates. For in six days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.
- V. Honour thy Father and thy Mother, that thy days may be long in the Land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.
- VI. Thou shalt do no Murder.
- VII. Thou shalt not commit Adultery.
- VIII. Thou shalt not steal.
- IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy Neighbour.
- X. Thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour's House, thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour's Wife, nor his Servant, nor his Maid, nor his Ox, nor his Ass, nor any thing that is his.

Qu. 9. What do'st thou chiefly learn by these Commandments?

Ans. I learn two things : my Duty towards God, and my Duty towards my Neighbour.

Qu. 10. What is thy Duty towards God?

Ans. My Duty towards God is,

I, II. To believe in him, to fear him, and to love him, with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my soul, and with all my strength : to worship him, to give him thanks, to put my whole trust in him, to call upon him.

III. To honour his holy Name and his Word ;

IV. And to serve him truly all the days of my life.

Qu. 11. What is thy duty towards thy Neighbour ?

Ans. My duty towards my Neighbour is,

1. To love him as my self, and to do to all men, as I would they should do to me.

V. To love, honour and succour my Father and Mother. To honour and obey the King, and all that are put in Authority under him. To submit my self to all my Governours, Teachers, Spiritual Pastors and Masters, To order my self lowly and reverently to all my betters.

VI. To hurt no body by word or deed.

VII. To be true and just in all my dealings.

VIII. To bear no malice nor hatred in my heart.

IX. To keep my hands from picking and stealing.

X. And my tongue from evil speaking, lying and slandering.

XI. To keep my body in temperance, soberness and chastity.

XII. Not to covet and desire other mens goods, but to learn and labour truly to get mine own living, and to do my duty in that state of life, unto which it shall please God to call me.

Of our Duty to God, contained in the four first Commandments.

- §. Is it not the sum of our Duty to God, to love him with all our Heart, with all our Mind, with all our Soul, and with all our Strength?
- §. Can we keep any of these Commandments aright, unless we thus love God above all?

Yes.

No.

Com. I. Of the Right Object of our Worship.

- §. Doth not the first Commandment injoyn us,
1. To take the true God for our only God?
  2. And to worship and glorifie him accordingly?
- §. Do not they then break this Commandment,
1. Who forsake and fall from the true Religion?
  2. Or who (though they continue in it, yet) do not know the true God, or not glorifie him as God?
- §. May we believe in, fear, or love any so much as God?
- §. Or give religious Worship to any but God alone?

Yes.

Yes.

Yes.

Yes.

No.

No.

Com. II. Of the Right Means or matter of our VVorship.

- §. Doth not the second Commandment require, that we should worship God with such Worship, as he hath appointed in his Word?
- §. Hath not God there appointed us to worship him by
1. Daily Prayer and Thanksgiving in the name of Christ?
  2. Frequent Reading, Hearing, and Meditating on his Word?
  3. And by the due use of Sacraments?
- †. Do not they sin against this Commandment,
1. Who worship God by Images, or any other way contrary to his Word?
  2. Or who corrupt, neglect, or oppose any of God's Ordinances?
- §. Is it unlawful for the Church to appoint decent Ceremonies?
- * Will not the Lord who is jealous for his own Worship, punish those as Haters of him, who break this Commandment?

Yes.

Yes.

Yes.

Yes.

Yes.

Yes.

Yes.

No.

Com. III.

Yes.

Com. III. Of the right Manner of our VVorship.

- §. Doth not the third Commandment require us devoutly to perform every part of Divine Worship, and reverently to use every thing which nearly relates to God? Yes.
- † Do not they break this third Commandment, who prophanely or irreverently use God's Holy Name, Titles, Attributes, Ordinances, Word or Works? Yes.
- §. Are not Blasphemy and Cursing, vain and false swearing, and also taking unlawful, or breaking our lawful Oaths and Vows, heinous Sins against this Commandment? Yes.
- * Will the Lord suffer them to escape his Righteous Judgment, who wilfully break this Commandment? No.

Com. IV. Of the solemn time of our VVorship.

- §. Doth not the fourth Commandment enjoyn us to keep holy the Sabbath day, by spending it,
1. In worshipping God both in publick and private? Yes.
2. Or in the Works of Necessity and Mercy? Yes.
- † Do not they sin against this Commandment,
1. Who spend the Sabbath-day in idleness? Yes.
2. Or about their worldly Business, or Recreations? Yes.
- §. May Masters command or permit these things to those who are under their charge? No.
- * Should not [1.] God's allowing six days for our own Imployment, [2.] and his challenging a special Propriety in the seventh: and [3.] his own Example [4.] and his blessing, and sanctifying the Sabbath-day, move us to obey this Commandment? Yes.
- §. Is it sufficient to worship God on the Sabbath-day only? No.
- §. Ought we to set apart some time for it every day? Yes.
- §. And must we religiously observe the Fasts and Festivals of the Church? Yes.

Of our Duty to Man, contained in the six last Commandments.

- §. Is not the Sum of our Duty to our Neighbour, to love him as our selves ? Yes.
- §. Do we thus love our Neighbours, unless we do to others what we would have them to do to us ? No.

Com. V. Of the Duties to our Relations.

- §. Doth not the fifth Commandment enjoyn us to perform the Duties we owe to our several Relations, especially to our Superiours ? Yes.
- † Is not this Commandment broken,
1. By children who are undutiful, irreverent, or unkind to their Parents or Guardians ? Yes.
  2. By Subjects, who dishonour, disobey, or rebel against the King, or those in Authority under him ? Yes.
  3. By People, who despise their Minister, resist his Doctrine, or with-hold his Dues ? Yes.
  4. By Servants, who are stubborn, slothful or unfaithful to their Masters ? Yes.
  5. By any other Inferiours, who behave themselves proudly and scornfully towards their Betters in Age, Gifts or Estate ? Yes.
- * Can they expect long Life or Prosperity, who break this Commandment ? No.

Com. VI. Of Humanity.

- §. Doth not the sixth Commandment require all lawful Endeavours to preserve our own, and our Neighbours Life and Health ? Yes.
- † Do not they sin against this Commandment, who hurt their own, or their Neighbours Life or Health ? Yes.
- §. May we be intemperate, or urge others to be so ? No.
- §. May we use angry or provoking Words ? No.
- Or bear Malice, or desire of Revenge in our Hearts ? No.

Com. VII. Of Chastity.

- §. Doth not the seventh Commandment enjoin Chastity in Heart, Speech and Behaviour ? Yes.
- †. Do

Cate-

Catechist.

My good child, know this, that thou art not able to do these things of thy self, nor to walk in the Commandments of God, and to serve him, without his special grace, which thou must learn at all times to call for by diligent Prayer.

Question 12.

Let me hear therefore if thou canst say the Lords Prayer.

Answer.

Our Father which art in Heaven.

I. Hallowed be thy Name,

II. Thy Kingdom come,

III. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven,

IV. Give us this day our daily bread.

V. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us,

VI. And lead us not into temptation.

VII. But deliver us from evil.

s. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory. For ever and ever. Amen.

Question.

What desirest thou of God in this Prayer?

Answer.

I desire my Lord God our heavenly Father, who is the Giver of all goodness, to send his grace unto me, and all people.

I. That we may worship him,

II. Serve him,

III. And obey him as we ought to do,

IV. And I pray unto God, that he will send us all things that be needful both for our Souls and Bodies,

V. And that he will be merciful unto us, and forgive us our sins.

VI, VII. And that it will please him to save and defend us in all dangers, ghostly and bodily, and that he will keep us from all sin and wickedness, and from our ghostly enemy, and from everlasting death.

And this I trust he will do of his mercy and goodness, through our Lord Jesus Christ, and therefore I say Amen. So be it.

Qu.

Catech. Of our need of God's Grace, and of the means to obtain it.

- |  |      |
|--|------|
| §. Are we able of our selves to believe, and to do all these things which we have promised, and are engaged to ? | No.  |
| §. Is not Prayer a special means to obtain the Assistance of God's Grace, to enable us hereto ?                  | Yes. |
| §. Ought we therefore daily, and upon all Occasions, to pray unto God for it ?                                   | Yes. |
| §. May we pray less than twice every day ?   | No.  |
| §. And will our Prayers be acceptable to God, unless our Minds and Hearts go along with our Words ?              | No.  |

Q. 12, 13. Of the Lord's Prayer, consisting of a Preface, seven Petitions, and a Conclusion.

- |  |      |

No.

* Do we therefore in the second Petition pray,

1. That Satan's Kingdom may be destroyed ?

Yes.

2. That God's Kingdom of Grace may be advanced, by bringing us and others into it ; and by keeping us all in it ?

Yes.

3. And that his Kingdom of Glory may be hastened ?

Yes.

III. Petition.

§. Are not we naturally prone to rebel against God's Commands, and to murmur at his Providence ?

Yes.

§. And inclined to do the Will of the Flesh and the Devil ?

Yes.

* Do we therefore in the third Petition pray ?

1. That God would make us and others able and willing to obey his Word, and submit to his Will in all things ?

Yes.

2. And both these, with the like chearfulness, sincerity and constancy, as the Angels do in Heaven ?

Yes.

IV. Petition.

§. Can we by our own Industry procure the outward Comforts of this Life, or can they of themselves sustain us, without God's Blessing ?

No.

* Do we therefore in the fourth Petition pray,

1. That upon our lawful Endeavours, we may of God's free Gift receive a competent Portion of the good things of this Life ?

Yes.

2. And may enjoy God's Blessing with them ?

Yes.

V. Petition.

§. Are we not by our sins become Debtors to the Justice of God, and liable to Condemnation ?

Yes.

§. Can we or any other Creature make any satisfaction for that Debt ?

No.

* Do

- * Do we therefore in the fifth Petition pray,
That through the Satisfaction of Christ, we and others may be acquitted, both from the Guilt and Punishment of sin ? Yes.
- §. Can we expect forgiveness from God, unless we from our Hearts forgive others their Offences against us ? No.

VI. Petition.

- §. Are not Satan, the World and the Flesh, always ready by their Temptations, to draw us to sin ? Yes.
- §. Are we of our selves willing to resist, or able to overcome them ? No.
- * Do we therefore in the sixth Petition pray,
That God would so subdue the Flesh, over-rule the World, and restrain Satan, that we and others,
1. May not be tempted to sin ? Yes.
2. However may not fall into it ? Yes.
3. Especially not live impenitently in it ? Yes.

VII. Petition.

- §. Can we hope to escape the evil of Punishment, if we so yield to temptation as to commit sin, or to continue in it ? No.
- * Do we therefore in the seventh Petition pray,
That we and others may not provoke God by our sinning and Impenitence, to punish us with Evils, and Miseries Temporal, Spiritual or Eternal ? Yes.

The Conclusion.

- §. Ought we in our Prayer to praise God ? Yes.
- Ascribing to him eternal Sovereignty over all, Power to do all, and Glory from all ? Yes.

Yes.

§. Is not the pardoning of this Original Guilt, the subduing our natural Corruption, and the restoring us to God's Favour, the inward Grace of Baptism?

Yes.

Question 19.

What is required of Persons to be Baptized?

Answer.

Repentance, whereby they forsake sin : and Faith, whereby they stedfastly believe the Promises of God, made to them in that Sacrament.

Question 20.

Why then are Infants baptised, when by reason of their tender age they cannot perform them?

Answer.

Because they promise them both by their Sureties, which Promise when they come to age themselves are bound to perform.

Question 21.

Why was the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper Ordained?

Answer.

For the continual Remembrance of the Sacrifice of the Death of Christ, and of the Benefits which we receive thereby.

Question 22.

What is the outward part or sign of the Lord's Supper?

Answer.

Bread and Wine, which the Lord hath commanded to be received.

Question

Qu. 19, 20. Of the Subject qualified for Baptism.
